

Dating Idea Fact Sheet

Supplies needed:

- Vent 'n Serve Small dating gifts
- Curling ribbon
- Hole punch
- Recipes printed on paper (included)
- Dating cards printed on card stock (included)

On each dating card write the date and time that you want to have parties from 8-15 thru 8-28, one card for each time slot. The top card will have your contact info and the bottom card will have the host info. Hole punch the cards and thread curling ribbon thru the hole. Lift silicone vent to open position. Tie ribbon around vent. Close vent. Curl ribbon.

Fold printed recipes into thirds, as if you were mailing a letter. Gently roll (do not crease) folded paper from the short side and place inside the Vent 'n Serve Small. You now have a "recipe box" that you can cook in!!! Place completed "recipe boxes" in a basket and take to your parties or anywhere you will see people. Even if you don't have your datebook, you'll know what dates to offer.

When your potential host chooses a date, have her fill out the host info dating card and return it to you. Say, "Susie, I'm going to put your card inside the Vent 'n Serve Small and hold it hostage until your party, where I will present it to you with flair. All your friends will be "pea-green" jealous and they will date a party for themselves just to get the recipes. It will be so much fun giving you the set of Vent 'n Serve Small mugs as a bonus for 3 datings!!!"

Dating Idea Fact Sheet

Coaching Consultants:

“Sue, how many parties can you see yourself holding between Aug. 15th and 28th? (Allow for a response)...Great! The Vent ‘n Serve Small comes in a set of 4, so be sure to order _____ sets ... that will give you a few extra for the double hosts or any last minute parties you might date.”

“Now, let’s look at your date book and see where we want to put those _____ parties. Now go ahead and take the dating cards and write in the dates and times on both the consultant info card and the host card. You’ll be ready to put your “recipe boxes” together as soon as they get here. In the meantime you can call a few of your favorite hosts and offer them a party with all the benefits that come from being a Record Beaker Host while you still have a lot of open dates.”
